Jessica Bracco, Executive Director

Jessica has been part of the Bluffs for 20+ years. While learning the ins and outs of every position since opening the doors in 2000, Jes has gained experience in all areas of The Bluffs. She enjoys that each day brings new challenges and excitement and that she works with so many great people. Jes has been married for 13 years and enjoys the outdoors of the Keweenaw with her three sons. She is a born and raised Yooper and a Copper Country native so helping and changing the lives of our areas seniors is her passion. She continues to lead the team to make The Bluffs the best senior living community in our area.

Abbie Parker, Business Office Director

Abbie has had a passion for business for ever a decade. She quickly realized that business was something she wanted to pursue as her career. She came to The Bluffs with experience in Human Resources, Banking and Office Administration. She enjoys working with a great staff and getting to connect with the residents. Abbie currently resides in Calumet with her husband Garret and their son Otto! She cherishes being able to assist the elders in our community to find a home that is enjoyable, comfortable and secure. Abbie looks forward to serving here for many years to come.

Amy Juntunen, Resident Support Director

Amy joins us with over fifteen years of experience in housing and management. She takes pride in providing new residents with a home they will love and to give families the peace of mind their loved one is comfortable and cared for. She makes connections and creates relationships with residents, families and staff. Amy enjoys time with her husband, her son and granddaughter while camping, rock collecting and the outdoors. Amy looks forward to continuing to create new memories at The Bluffs.

Kalyssa Korby, Life Enrichment Director

Kalyssa's energy and creativity radiate through her work. Her love for crafting, photography and art shine in her work. Kalyssa has a passion for making people smile and try new things. She lives in Houghton with her Husband Tim and two children. She looks forward to creating unique activity opportunities that focus on knowledge, health, religion and culture. Her favorite thing about The Bluffs is getting to know all of the different residents and being part of their journey.

Shelly Marino, Culinary Director

Shelly has been a part of The Bluffs team since 2016. Starting as Dining Attendant, then dining room manager and eventually moving to her current role, Culinary Director. Shelly knows the ins and outs of our kitchen. Her attention to detail and leadership ensure that our teams are providing the best culinary and dining experience for our residents and guests. Shelly enjoys time with her family and in her garden beds. She takes delight in getting the best fresh and local produce for our residents and challenging our staff to create delicious meals and desserts.

Jackie Saari, Housekeeping Director

Jackie has over 38 years of experience in Housekeeping, 18 of those years at The Bluffs. Through her leadership, Jackie and her team ensure all standards are above and beyond. She is motivated by providing an excellent place for our residents to live and guests to visit. Her enthusiasm for caring and connecting with residents makes them feel special and loved. Jackie is married with 2 children. She enjoys snowmobiling and camping. She continues to say through all her year here, "It's not work when you are having fun."

Eric Strom, Maintenance Director

Eric is the newest member of our management team. He joins us with experience in maintenance and handy work. Eric is a true yoooper outdoorsman, enjoying hunting, fishing and being outdoors. Through his leadership, Eric and his team ensure that our building continues to run smoothly and efficiently. Eric currently resides in Hancock with his Wife and 3 children. He looks forward to many new milestones ahead.
